Florida Sugar Cane Faces Third Acreage Cut In 13 Years

The Florida sugar industry, for the third time since 1965, faces a drastic sugar cane acreage cut unless Congress raises the sugar marketing quota this year, according to a statement released by H. T. Vaughn, Sr., President of the Florida Sugar Cane League.

Under present marketing regulations the eight raw sugar processing companies in Florida will receive a combined quota of about 600,000 tons of sugar this year. According to Vaughn, this size quota would only be about 64 percent of the state's 717,000 ton production from the crop just harvested.

Because of the totally inadequate quota, in addition to being forced to store a large portion of the 1967-68 crop until 1969, not one pound of 1968 sugar can be sold until he said. As a result, farmers will be forced to reduce sugar cane acreage again. The total planted cut may result in a 40 percent reduction to 40 percent below normal.

In the early 1960s, sugar acreage and marketing

Junk Cars Still A Nuisance Here

Sometimes "monkey see, monkey do" isn't such a bad thing if it helps solve a worthwhile problem. Here with is how a situation Belle Glade has is expected to be handled in a city hall at large:

IF YOU ABANDON CARS HERE, IT WILL COST YOU

Being is expected to enact an ordinance shortly prohibiting the parking of abandoned or non-operative vehicles on streets or private property.

The law provides that no abandoned or non-operative vehicle can remain on public or private property for more than 72 hours. Owners or persons permitting such vehicles can be fined $500 or six months in jail or both. In event the city has to remove the vehicles, the owner may be charged with costs.

Chief Goodlett "Casualty" Of Hurricane Abby

"It just ruined my whole day," said Charles D. Goodlett, Belle Glade Police Chief, who was involved in a two-car auto accident near Lake Placid, Tuesday, but was not seriously injured.

According to Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Wilbur Woods, the accident happened during a heavy rain storm from Hurricane Abby, in central Florida at that time.

Goodlett's car was struck as he entered SR 619 and SR 621 by a westbound vehicle driven by Walter Czarnicki, 42, of Lake Placid.

According to Goodlett it was just a "fender bumping," as neither myself or the other men was hardly moving—the wind was blowing and the rain was so thick you could cut it with a knife.

No charges were filed by Trooper Woods, who estimated damages at $600.

Goodlett was driving to a camp on Lake Istokpoga to the down some boats.

Market Report

Prices were a little uneasy at Monday's market with slaughterer cows off about $1.00 and light slaughter calves off $3.50. Stocker steers were $5.00 to $10.00 higher, stocker heifers $5.00 higher and stocker heifer calves off about $25 to $30.

A total of 440 head were sold with 10% to slaughter and 90% to stockers.

Ninety head of steers and heifers yearlings, 42 head of bred cows and 18 pairs are expected next week, says the C. C. Morris, Manager, Glades Livestock Market.

Mother Snake Stirs Interest At Gove Elementary School

Mrs. Carolyn Eason's third grade class at Gove Elementary School has an unusual pet in their classroom this week: A Chicken Snake with at last count 18 baby snakes.

The snake was made a captive when found in the yard of V. J. Zawadzki on Wednesday and their son, 8, brought the reptile to school for the other children to see.

That was two weeks ago. Monday morning, as it waiting for class to take in, the snake suddenly made herself conspicuous as a murder by having babies.

When asked what kind of snake it was, Mrs. Eason said, "It is a Chicken Snake, so they say, I'm no authority on snakes." She concluded by saying the snake gave her "goose bumps."

Of course, all the students, think that the new addition is just "peachy keen," as one youngster remarked. During the day each class at the school trooped by the aquarium tank to view the new mother and her brood.

Joe said he is going to take the snakes home at the end of the week, because his mother "hated her." Mrs. Zawadzki, a fifth grade teacher at the school was not available for comment.

Committee Wants End To Aid For All Communist Countries

At the hands of a war machine that is in large part fed and equipped by our own government. And we are sure the American people want this ended now.

Mr. Morris said the Committee asks: "Why fight the Communists in Vietnam and help them everywhere else in the world, through aid and trade. The tragic result is that the American taxpayer is forced to foot the bill for both sides of the war. This petition campaign will give them a chance to let the Administration know they oppose this policy."

More than 200 petitions, containing 3400 signatures, have already been sent to Washington by this Committee. "This is part of a nationwide movement which is quickly becoming the most massive

Col. W. J. N. Kirkman, Director of the Department of Public Safety said, "Semi-annual motor vehicle inspection, is underway and blue stickers are beginning to appear on windshield. The decals show a vehicle has passed inspection, and should serve as a reminder to other Florida motorists to check their new license plate to determine their inspection month."

If the last digit of the new tag is four or five the car must be inspected in June, six or seven in July, eight or nine in August, zero or one in September, two or three in October and special tags in November.

YOUR MONEY

By Richard A. Panton

Money is a fascinating subject, especially if it's your own. And there are a lot of misconceptions about money and its use, just as there are about many of the known facts about financial institutions, such as savings and loan associations, which are playing such an increasingly important role in our nation's money matters.

That's what this column is all about. It'll be appearing every week. We'll talk about your money, including the things it can be used for, from a trip to Hawaii to the purchase of a new home. We'll try to answer your questions about money management, savings and home financing.

We'll talk about savings and loan associations, too—their little known history, the reasons behind their tremendous growth in this century, the part they can play in making your hopes and dreams and ways of security become reality.

We hope you'll read our comments each week... and stop in and get acquainted at our office—a good place for your money to grow!

Southern States Industrial Council

The massive 72 to 4 vote by which the U.S. Senate passed a sweeping crime control bill reflects the body's awareness of the people's desire that lawlessness be curbed. No matter what happens in the Senate-House conference committee, or when the bill reaches President Johnson's desk, it is clear that the country has turned a corner. Members of Congress realize, at long last, that truly decisive action must be taken to curb crime.

Senator Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.), in arguing for passage of the bill, spelled out the crime situation confronting the country. Referring to an FBI chart, he said: "It shows that while the population of the United States has increased 48 per cent, serious crimes—murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny of property of the value of $50 or over, and auto theft—have increased 368 per cent." Large parts of many American cities are unsafe. Hoodlums are rampant. Obviously, strong measures are needed to remedy these conditions.

One of the most important features of the crime control bill passed by the Senate is provision for overhauling Supreme Court decision on the admissibility of confessions. These decisions limit the use of confessions by police and also limit the use of lineup identification. Under the Senate-passed bill, a trial judge would determine whether a confession was given voluntarily and whether eyewitness identification was admissible.

Law enforcement agencies have been enormously handicapped by the Supreme Court decisions on these matters. Senator Ervin also spelled this out very clearly in the Senate debate. Quoting a federal judge in the District of Columbia, he stated:

"He said that the courts have stopped trying to determine whether the accused in criminal cases are innocent or guilty of the crimes charged. He said the courts have to spend all their time trying to determine whether the police officers of the District violated one or the other of these recently elected rules."

The rules newly invented by the U.S. Supreme Court are a boon to criminals of all types. Among other things, they deprive the state of the most convincing evidence that can be obtained, namely, a voluntary confession of the accused that the crime had been committed. In this era of judicial nonsense, where the nation's highest court places an absurd ban on voluntary confessions, the ban is contrary to everything the country has accepted since the founding of the United States.

It is important, of course, to protect the rights of the accused. But there has to be a balance between the rights of the individual and the rights of society to be free from terrorism by criminal elements.

In recent years, there has been a vast amount of judicial law that has upset this balance and stripped society of protection that is essential. The Supreme Court has used this balance and stripped society of protection that is essential. The Supreme Court has used this balance and stripped society of protection that is essential.

Since we seem to find ourselves suffering from drought in Florida every year or so, with water use restricted in some areas and costly in others, Floridians should find a book just published by Arno and Irene Nehring of genuine interest.

It is entitled Easy Gardening with Drought Resistant Plants, published by the side Press, N.Y., $6.95. It is an attractive volume of over 300 pages well illustrated and profusely illustrated.

As our communities continue to expand and the need for water increases, Florida gardeners will find it worthwhile to acquire plants with plants that will thrive on less moisture. I was surprised to find how many there are and how they can be arranged in a garden effectively.

The Nehring book does not confine itself to drought plants but tells you how to plant and control pests as well as many other helpful suggestions that should insure your success in the development of a lovely garden that will still exist and flourish without an abundance of water.

It also deals with planting in weather and climate where plants and flower growing is often a real problem; also deals with growing plants on hillside where it is difficult to get water to the roots even when water is plentiful. It explains how to use available water most effectively and how to preserve moisture through mulching.

It tells you what to do about

Senator declared:

He said the courts have to spend all their time trying to determine whether the police officers of the District violated one or the other of these recently elected rules."

Mrs. Freedlund Visits More Famous Spanish Landmarks

While in Toledo we visited the church of Our Lady of El Sagrado, where the twelve disciples were in relief over the entrance. This church was started in 1227, and it took five hundred years to build. There are carvings of alabaster and wood, and a large crucifix carved out of coral the only one I have ever seen. There was a small room filled with priceless religious figures one of which was made of 221 pounds of silver. There was a cross of solid diamonds. In the choir room there were seven seats, all carved with a different pattern. It took one man seven years to carve these. There were a number of paintings here by El Greco, the famous "Red Room of Christ" and "The Burial" which represents a miracle. There are individual paintings of the twelve apostles and of Christ. St. Peter in Tears is very lifelike, and shows the sorrow of Peter after he had denied Christ three times. His eyes seem to pebble. On his arm are the mystical keys to Heaven. Our guide was an artist and he showed us a few pictures with a vivid picture that had been painted over four hundred years ago. He said he could not get green to stay without fading. The head of the Catholic Church is located in Toledo, and many Cardinals are buried in the floor of this church. Above each tomb is hung the Cardinal's hat by a black string from the ceiling. The guide told us, "Maybe that is to help him get to Heaven."

We visited the Damascene Factory, where men were pounding 24 carat gold into pieces of tempered steel. There were a number of people for sale, and the Frenchman who used of fever in 1578 the age of thirty-one. He was king of Holland. The guide pointed out the sixteen rings he had on his finger, and he had love affairs. At the end of this long corridor we came to a circular room with what the guide related to as the wedding cake where the thirty-four children of King Philip the fourth were buried. This was made of white marble in the shape of a wedding cake. The royal summer palace adjoined this Monastery, and has rooms of large tapestries, some measuring about forty by twenty feet. There was one, Neptune Purifying the Sea that took one man 16 years to make. When King Philip became ill he had his daughter come and take care of him even though there was a rule that no women could enter a Monastery. He had a bedroom fitted so he could lie in bed and by opening a door hear the church service. He suffered from gout, and it took seven days for four men to carry him from Madrid. Philip's island was later known as the Philippines. It was very cold in this Monastery and our feet ached. One of women asked our guide if they kept the Monastery open all winter. The guide told her that they did, but that they took a glass of brandy and had "central heating."

The Valley of the Fallen is a national monument to those who fell in the Spanish Civil War. There is a double highway leading out to this, and it is situated in the exact center of Spain. This was planned and supervised by Franco with the help of engineers. There are rolling hills all around covered with pines, oaks, and poplar trees. It is completely isolated and you cannot see any houses anywhere. It was begun in 1940 and finished in 1957. As you approach the highest mountain you see a mammoth cross five hundred and seventy-five feet tall with figures at the base. Underneath this mountain it has been built out and a long hallway that leads to a chapel.

There are six altars decorated simply with pictures on leather depicting scenes in the life of Mary. Along the walls are four tapestries on each side on red velvet on the east side. Above on each side are figures of the pipe organ. The pipes of angels holding torques are draped in black. As we approached the chapel they were having services, and it was filled with people. On either side of the altar were large figures of archangels with wings uplifted. These seemed to be in flight. There are huge metal doors with 8 panels of relief work. The steps leading from the chapel are very wide and long. It was Sunday and hundreds of people were visiting.

There are many small cars that do not have a good means of identification, and it is quite hard to tell. As our car in Madrid was growing short of gas, we decided to go to the nearest gas station. We found a small gas station with a sign that said "GAS." We went in and found a man behind the counter. He asked us if we were tourists. We said yes. He asked us if we were from the United States. We wanted to like the spectacular baby lamb or roast sucking pig, so four of us took a taxi to the town of Burgos. The town is a beautiful old town with a long history. ### Annual Meeting Of First Church of Christ Scientist

GORDON V. COMER
New President of the Christian Science Church - BOSTON - Today's world is full of destructive upheaval and tremendous change calls men to be spiritual builders.

This appeal from the Christian Science Board of Directors gathered here from around the world for the Annual Meeting of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The message from the Board of Directors, read by Arthur P. Wuth, its new Chairman, stressed individual effort as the first step in any attempt to help solve the world's ills.

"Poverty, ignorance, war, racial conflict, immorality, civil disorder, mental and physical enslavement exemplify standards torn down, spiritual ideals discarded, the best of civilization fallen into disuse," Mr. Wuth said.

Nehemiah's example as a spiritual builder was cited as still vital and useful to Christians today in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem, Mr. Wuth explained. Nehemiah was making practical his own understanding of God and His kingdom.

"It is not the need then for individuals dedicated to their work, committed and consecrated to the task of spiritual building?" he asked.

Mr. Wuth then quoted the disciple Peter: "Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, as holy priests, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ (I Peter 2:5).

Lively stones imply more than building blocks," he continued. "Liveliness denotes action, action resulting from spiritual unfoldment, action that is inspired, rightly motivated, God-supported, God-sustained."

Singling out war and racial conflict as two of the major problems which the Church must confront, Mr. Wuth said: "The Church must fulfill the requirements of peace by teaching the practicality of the great commandments—love of God and love for one's neighbor. It must teach the illness of God, good, the impersonality of evil, and the ability of the individual, whatever his race or color, to demonstrate this."

"Harmony, order, and peace know no color line. They be-

The Messengers Male Quartet At Alliance Church Tuesday

The Messengers Male Quartet of Toccoa Falls Institute, Toccoa Falls, Georgia, will present a program of sacred music and instrumental at the Alliance Church, 425 East Canal Street North, Belle Glade, June 11 at 7:30 P. M.

The group includes Richard Perry, bass, Colombia, South America; George Hill, baritone, Long Island, New York; Don Worner, second tenor, Pensacola, Florida; Lloyd Penney, first tenor, Wilmington, North Carolina; and Grey Mott, pianist, Jacksonville, Florida.

The quartet and Rev. Brown will tour throughout the summer months in the Southern, and North Eastern states will appear in churches, conferences, and youth rallies.

Rev. Brown, for many years a successful pastor in Florida, is now Alumni Executive Secretary and Field Evangelist for Toccoa Falls Institute. He has been featured youth speaker, Bible teacher, and evangelist for rallies, camps, missionary conventions and revival campaigns.

Would not life be pleasant if we were free to do only the things we enjoy doing? Would we find a state of complete happiness if we awake each morning and knew that no one expected us to do anything at all?

The truth probably is that most of us would be quite miserable. We could not live an aimless existence. Our very nature compels us to recognize and accept responsibilities. We know where our duty lies, even if we would let someone else have the job, at times half a chance.

long to the spiritual heritage of each individual; and it is the responsibility of Church to assert, demonstrate and maintain this standard.

The healing and uplifting work of Jesus, Mr. Wuth said, attested the practicality of spiritual building by means of prayer and inspiration.

Mary Baker Eddy, who discovered and founded Christian Science, taught the need for each individual to contribute to the progress and regeneration of society through spiritual building, he said.

Gordon V. Comer, newly-elected President for the coming year, said that whatever the turmoil of the present times, spiritual values and all the blessings they bring to humanity will survive.

REV. BROWN

Paramedics Wins Club Of The Year

Congratulations go to the Paramedics Club for being chosen Club of the Year. This is an honor bestowed on the most active club each year by the Student Council. The Club president is Jill Bowen and the club's sponsor is Mrs. Hazel Litchfield.

Paramedics is a club opened to all girls interested in entering a medical career. Among its projects for the year were decorating Christmas trees for the children's ward at the hospital, sponsoring the Little Mr. Belle Glade contest, and decorating the halls for football season.

Two of the club's representatives were elected to state offices and will serve their term next year. To bring the year to a close the club held its annual Spring Banquet at Glades General Hospital. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Korn, Mrs. Hazel Litchfield, and their assistance given to the club throughout the year.

1968 Seniors

Dear 1968 Seniors, What makes a class outstanding? There cannot be just one factor. Of necessity, there are numerous factors which make you a Class with a capital C.

You don't have to present a winning front and you don't have to be TOLD you are great! You have the ability to transcend temporary physical things. You have an indomitable, unflinching and unrepentant desire to strive — regardless of the outcome. Having the capacity to see things for what they are, to continually search for truth, to do your best, to CARE and to APOLOGIZE for their assistance given to the club throughout the year.

Academy of '68 Presents Awards

Excitement and tension filled the air last Friday at the Belle Glade Academy Awards. At eight o'clock the stage was filled with color as the Academy presented themselves in formal attire.

It was a night to remember as the members of the Academy voted on short lists. Master of Ceremonies Dick Hooker made introductions, and Principal Pelton Morris gave out awards.

To climax the awards presentation, it was announced Kathryn Smith and Johnny Williams had been awarded the Citizenship Award and that Patty Stevenson and Mark Whittemore had been chosen by the faculty as "Best All Around." Surprises and joy filled each one of them as they realized the confidence that had been placed in each one of them.

Many awards were given that night. Some such as the General Excellence Awards were given to people who had worked hard to achieve high quality in certain fields. Receiving the General Excellence Awards were: English — Barbara Dexter, History — Richard McMillan, Mathematics — Maria Iglesias, Science — Marilyn Shaw, Agriculture — Steve Butler, Home Economics — Kathy Morris, Business Education — Joyce Bradow, Glee Club — Marilyn Stokes, Band — Bill Phillips, DCT — Anita Cardin, Art — Layne Plunkett, Journalism — Dick Hooker, and Honorary Science — Enrique Tomeu. Other awards were given in recognition of scholarship and special talents.

As event followed event every one was filled with the memories of the things that had happened to each one of them while they were in school. When the class song, "At Di La was sung the memories of proms and the wonderful things passed by quickly in our minds. The evening ended with the Alma Mater, the Seniors knew that they would be remembering, yet leaving.

Go My Children

I send you, my children to go. Not in search of riches. But rather in search of freedom. Freedom not only of the body But of the mind and soul. Freedom not only to come and go. But the freedom to express ideas.

Go and look my children. For a place of freedom that knows no boundaries. Where time is not split into seconds and hours. And people are not divided because of archaic prejudices. Go and look, my children, for Heaven.

Linda Richy as Shirley Temple in Charlie Chaplin skit.

President of the Week

Buddy Wilder is the Junior Class President and an outstanding member of the student body. He has played football for two years. One year "B" team, one year Varsity. Buddy played the position of tailback and halfback for the Golden Rams. He has also run track for the past two years.

In Buddy's Freshman year he was elected President of the class and rode the float in the Sophomore year in the football festival. He has been in F.F.A. for the past three years, and holds the office of Vice President along with the student council representative.

Buddy plans to attend college after graduation at Gainesville and later go to T.B.M. school. His interest all sports, cars, swimming, skiing and a certain senior girl. He hopes to have a lot of fun his senior year and plans to make the most of his last year of school. I guess you know say money's more important is generally "having fun". With Buddy's busy schedule one might think he never had time for himself or his friends, but whenever you need him to do a favor he's always there smiling and willing to work. We commend Buddy for his outstanding job as Junior Class President.

As you walk down that aisle in your gown and mortarboard stand high, stand proud and stand sure — for each of you has been given a priceless opportunity to study, learn, play and work with others as yourself. You are the largest Class to graduate from Belle Glade Senior High. Largest in number! Yes, but you are also a Class that can match quality for quantity on any scale. Good-bye and thanks for warm memories as your ad, vior.

BIG MOUTH

Mr. Stevens, what's this we hear about your tie with the hidden lady in it? The Physics class sure got a kick-out of Maria L's little show. Did you do it on purpose. Mr. Evans, we've heard of nightmares but yours was ridiculous. Good luck in the future!!

Gloria C., Chip K., Paul B., and Jennie A., what happened to "Linda Tom" in Chemistry when the wind started blowing? We heard you were rocking out to the sound of the Five Senses!

Book Review

Everywhere we go today we have ceased to be entertained. The movies and books, Planet of the Apes, In Cold Blood, Guess Who's Coming to Dinner, Valley of the Dolls, and others have challenged us to THINK. The latest book and soon to be a movie that is making us think is Rosemary's Baby by Ira Levin. This modern witchcraft isn't! This book almost makes one believe it does! It begins simply enough with a young married couple living in an exclusive apartment house in New York, but with Rosemary's strange pregnancy the story takes on new meaning in which you ask yourself "Why?" The movie and books, getting excited Ira Levin tries to again make one think all is normal. It is then one is struck with a surprise ending which leaves one questioning their society and the emotions of humans.

Club News

Student Council presented the last assembly program of the year Friday. President Andy Ballard presided and began the program with the flag salute and the singing of the Alma Mater. The students were led in singing by the Senior Class officers: Julio Perez, Mark Whittemore, Terry Mace and Margaret Thompson.

Andy explained the program was to recognize certain students who had been outstanding in their activities throughout the 1967-68 school year. Mrs. Hazel Litchfield gave the first awards for excellence in Homecoming. These went to Alice Hallowood, Sue Griffin and Kathy Morris. Next on the program was Miss Vida Hardie who presented Steve Lowry with an award for being the most outstanding student in the field of mathematics. Steve is a junior and was honored for making the highest grade on a national math test.

Mrs. Margaret Earwood next, presented an award to Judy Seiser for her exceptional work and contributions to the Art Club. Mrs. Earwood explained this was a small group who must maintain a B average in Art. Judy is a junior and has been responsible for the many attractive posters around school. She also is the President-Elect for the Art Club. Andy then introduced Dick Hooker who is President of the Beta Club. Each year, the club recognizes the junior and sophomore who has achieved excellence in scholarship by having the highest average in his class. This year the certificate and checks for $5 went to Chip Kaufman — Junior Class and James Redwine — Sophomore Class.

The program ended with Senior Class President, Julio Perez turning senior's rights and privileges over to the Junior Class President, Bill C. Wilder. At this point, the seniors vacated (?) their seats and made way for the upcoming senior.

At this important time of your life, we'd like to add our own personal Congratulations and Good Wishes to you. We hope that your future hopes and ambitions will be crowned with success and fulfillment, and that your life will always be filled with Good Health and Happiness. Congratulations from all of us!

Headstart Program For Glades Center Starts June 17

A revised and abbreviated Head Start program for approximately 1450 culturally deprived Palm Beach County children will begin at 10 school centers through Palm Beach County, 4 of which are in the Glades, June 17 and conclude August 5. It is announced by County Superintendent Robert W. Fulton.

Glades area centers and feeder schools are: 1. Gove Elementary — Glade View Elementary — East Lake, Everglades, 1000.

North Ridge and Canal Point Elementary; 3. Belle Glade Elementary — Ocoee and Lake Shore Elementary; 4. South Bay Elementary — Lake Harbor, Okaloosa and Roseland Elementary.

Curriculum and administrative plans for this year's program had been almost parallel with the 1967 program. However, Federal authorities in the Office of Economic Opportunity had cut the budget request by approximately $46,000.

PROGRAM WAS CRIPPLED
Arrangement with the Federal authorities for the Government's share of funding the Head Start program is separate from the non-school Palm Beach County Community Action Council (C.A.C.) which, in turn, contracts with the county's public school system to organize and administer the summer kindergarten-type program.

When C.A.C. recently notified the county school system of the O.E.O. cut of approximately $46,000, school officials immediately noted the Head Start program might be "unworkable" NOT merely because of the size of the budget cut, but because of the nature in which the cuts had been made — notably, medical, nursing, and transportation. The cost of children's meals had also been cut a dime per child per day. Federal funds for classroom and office supplies were also among items cut by O.E.O. On the other hand, the O.E.O. had added $22,000 to the Head Start program, to the purpose of C.A.C. and school officials.

Thanks to additional assistance from the county public health authorities, and O.E.O. approval of the program, the additional and unthought dental funds, the 1968 Head Start program has been salvaged in part.

Superintendent Fulton has now sent a letter to all elementary principals telling them: "It now appears a Head Start program will be operated by the school system this summer. It will be lacking some of the services provided by programs in the past, but salaries will be less than previous years, and teachers will be required to assume additional administrative responsibilities. In spite of the curtailment of some services, the program, it is anticipated that more of the program will function well to accomplish the major program objectives."

CUT FROM 8 TO 7 WEEKS
1. Abbreviating the program from eight to seven weeks. This lightens the overall cost of meals, transportation and other services.

2. A supplementary fund "in excess of $4000" being made available by the Palm Beach County Health Department to make possible the essential medical and nursing services.

3. An across the board reduction in teacher salaries from $500 per month to $475 per month (for the abbreviated seven weeks program).

4. A cutback in the number of caseworkers originally sought from four to one. Caseworkers in today's school system combine many of the duties of welfare and former trust officers, seeking the reasons behind absenteeism and cooperating and advising with parents and guardians.

FUND TRANSFERS NEEDED NEGOTIATING
Officials of the county public health system and the area's A.C. successfully negotiated over a period of several weeks, the above reported special authority to transfer certain funds in the total O.E.O. allocation of approximately $291,000 to make possible transportation and other essential services for the program. This reference to a transfer of funds has particular reference to a revised use of the original Federal grant of an additional $22,000 for new and unplanned dental services.

SUMMARY
In summary, the school system through C.A.C. had originally requested approximately $121,000 Federal funds to operate this year's program. But O.E.O. had cut $46,000 from the local request, yet added approximately $22,000 for additional and unthought dental services. Therefore, this left a NET deficit of approximately $34,000 — without Federal authority to transfer funds from one part of the program to another, to absorb the net loss. This had made the plan "unworkable" because it, in effect, eliminated the medical-nursing services, etc. required for the program.

"Treasure Isle" Has It's Ups And Downs
"Treasure Isle," the exciting daytime fun and game television program, is produced between the Colonades Hotel and the Atlantic Ocean in Palm Beach Shores, Fla. The show recently took on a new wrinkle "Isle" over $20,000 worth of prizes were put on the island for one bonnieviewer winning a Contest. Many of the larger prizes had to be put on the island with a crane and one of the prizes was an automobile. When the auto was hoisted high in the air by the crane it was early in the morning and it went by many windows of the hotel. One hotel resident was just waking up and happened to look out his window just in time to see a "flying" convertible. What a way to start a day.

It took 112 programs but it finally happened. On the 112th "Treasure Isle" television program, the wrong clues were put on the flags that the couples race to when they try and solve the giant jigsaw puzzle. The clues for the 113th show were put in the flags including the actual name of the person the riddle spelled out. Each team used all three clues and then went to the last flag to find out the answer. In each number four flag the name of Harry Truman appeared but it should have been Elvis Presley.

The first girl to reach the bell yelled out Harry Truman and host John Bartholomew Tucker yelled, "Wrong." Then moments later, the second girl gave Truman's name again and words can't describe the puzzled look that came over JBT's face as he yelled wrong again. The mixup was corrected as the right clues were put in the flags and then portions of the program was redone. Moments later a stagehand fell off one of the portable bridges into the man-made lagoon. Some days it just doesn't pay to get up.

Fight Women's "Sufferage Vote For Office Safety

Slipping on a paper clip isn't as spectacular as being thrown through the ring ropes. But office girls can sometimes wind up with more serious injuries than women wrestlers.

As reports Astoria Life & Casualty, whose engineers develop safety programs for many of the nation's businesses. In one case from the insurance company's files, a secretary spent 27 weeks at home with a fractured leg after slipping over her office telephone wire. In another instance, a file clerk hurt her wrist so badly handling a bulky folder that she had to undergo surgery.

Safety at the office is important for a growing number of American women. Of the nation's 25 million women workers, one out of three is employed in business offices.

As the nation's largest source of principal causes of office accidents: unnecessary haste, poor housekeeping, unsafe handling, and misuse of office machines. To help make the office a safer place to work, Astoria offers these tips:

1. Walk, don't run. Haste takes its greatest toll at the end of the working day. In hurrying to leave the building, you can experience a serious fall on a surface that is perfectly safe. You also can be injured rushing around corners, past doors, on stairs or in corridors, or while pushing or crowding at elevator entrances.

Record Number Of Seniors Graduated In County-Friday

Palm Beach County's 15 senior high schools will this year graduate an estimated record 3170 seniors. It is announced by County Superintendent Robert W. Fulton. This compares with the 2993 graduated last year, and only 1067 graduated 10 years ago, June, 1958.

This 3170 total updates estimates issued earlier this month by county school officials.

All graduation ceremonies will take place Friday evening, June 7, except those for Boca Raton High School students where they will be held Saturday evening, June 8.

Graduation exercises will be held here at the Belle Glade High School in the auditorium at 8 p.m., featuring student speakers, diplomas given out by Robert M. Hooker, board member to an estimated 149 graduates.

And at Lake Shore High School in the auditorium at 8 p.m., Mr. Thomas Jenkins will be the speaker and Dr. D. L. Peterson, director of secondary education will give out the diplomas to an estimated 113 graduates.

And at Palatka High School in the gymnasium at 8:15 p.m., featuring Laurence Mayfield, speaker; diplomas given out by Clyde E. Harris, assistant superintendent in administration to an estimated 51 graduates.

Superintendent Fulton said he wishes he could congratulate each graduate individually on successful completion of the 12 years of formal education.

Noting that high school graduation is "only the end of the beginning" of the learning process for the graduates, Mr. Fulton wished them all success in the years ahead as they continue learning new skills in the vocational schools, at colleges, and in their journeys down life's roads — the University of Practical Experience.

"I am sure," the Superintendent added, "that all our graduates will remember the sacrifices their parents have made for them, the work of the teachers who prepared them during the past 12 years, nor will they forget, I am sure, the people of our communities who make public education possible."

This will be the first graduating class, this year, to come from John I. Leonard Junior-High School, Lake Worth, which was opened seven years ago with a 10th grade as its top class. It is this 10th grade which has now become the first senior class for this school, so that this year's graduates will, indeed, be an historic group during the anticipated long life of this school.

Contravise, this year will see the last high school senior class graduating from East Lake High School, Palatka, which has been in the course of being phased out during the past three years. Since the

Started in 1938 with only eight members, total membership in the Florida Public Relations Association now exceeds 450, making it one of the largest and most effective statewide associations of its kind in the country.
